Letter of compliance and how to make contributions into the Australian Ethical Retail Super Fund

Dear Employer

austrailanethical super provides an ethical super option where we seek out investments that align with the australianethical Charter. We believe that contributing your employees' super into australianethical can benefit your business by:

- developing your status as an employer of choice
- increasing staff satisfaction
- demonstrating leadership and commitment to society and the environment.

The Australian Ethical Retail Super Fund is a complying super fund. The Certificate of Compliance and our registration details are attached. The australianethical super fund is eligible to accept employer contributions and be nominated as a default fund.

Making contributions

Employers can make contributions to the fund by setting up an online employer login by contacting us on 1300 134 337. You can use our secure online access to: make contributions for employees; export files from your payroll system; search, view and edit employee details; view recent contributions and view and update your employer details.

Contributions can also be made by completing the Ongoing employer contribution form each time you make super contributions on behalf of your employees.

You can also make ongoing contributions using the Australian Government Small Business Superannuation Clearing House (the Clearing House) a free service open to small businesses with less than 20 employees. Registration for the clearing house service has now commenced and the full Clearing House service will be available from 1 July 2010. Small businesses can now register for the service online. Details on how to register can be found at www.medicareaustralia.gov.au/super or by calling Medicare Australia on 1300 660 048.

Nominating australianethical as your super fund

You can also select australianethical as your employer nominated super fund by completing the Application form - Employers located in the product guide (PDS). This means that your employees' super will go into our fund unless they elect otherwise. You will need to provide each of your employees with a copy of our PDS (we can send you as many as required) for them to complete the Application form - Individuals.

You can then make ongoing contributions using the online employer login, by calling us on 1300 134 337, by completing the Ongoing employer contribution form, or if eligible the Clearing House.
